

Press release IndigoJazzlounge

Indigo is a natural colour – a rich, vibrant blue that just makes you feel good. More than a colour it is a sensation you want to embrace and immerse yourself in. Indigo-blue is the sound of IndigoJazzlounge: pure, authentic, elegant, and vivacious.

Aniko Kanthak is the captivating voice of IndigoJazzlounge. Whether being luminous or smoky, evocative or sensually soothing, she makes familiar melodies sparkle with fresh nuance, all with disarming ease. Here is reason enough to spend time in the delightful company of IndigoJazzlounge.

Sharing first-seat status with the vocalist are the astonishingly inventive IndigoJazzlounge instrumental members. Pianist Sebastian Gahler enriches classical jazz standards with his ingeniously subtle arrangements, while Nico Brandenburg (bass) and René Marx (drums) bring their own compelling individualism to the mix.

IndigoJazzlounge – four musicians whose ideas and characters are reflected in their music. Jazz, Bossa Nova, acoustic pop – a multifaceted mixture producing a rich, full sound.

Indigo sound: ever new, ever passionate.
